

Rhode Island Women in Higher Education
8th Annual Conference
April 29, 2010

Business Meeting

Jayne Richmond (URI) presented George Lewis, Assistant Director Alton Jones Campus with a $500 donation from RIWHE for use of the facilities at the Whispering Pine Conference center.

Annette Cerilli (Bryant) began business meeting with moment of silence for Dr. Ivy Locke who was a member of RIWHE and former presenter who passed away earlier this month.

- Call for action: volunteers needed for scholarship committee in honor of Dr. Locke to review and set criteria.
- Treasury report: as of March 31 - $7007.62 in account.
- Presentation of flowers and plaque to Jennifer Chasse in recognition for her 10 years of work in RIWHE. Jennifer was also presented with a bag from RISD.

Jennifer Chasse (Bryant)

- Recognized the institutional reps in audience
- Recognized committees for planning of events
- Announced that the fall event will be sustainable farm coop headed by Ginnie Dunleavy

Ginnie Dunleavy (RISD) presented this year's "Outstanding Leadership" award to Jessie Shefrin, Provost, RISD. Provost Shefrin was presented with plaque and flowers.

Jennifer Chasse (Bryant)

Slate of new officers presented and approved unanimously

- Deborah Cohen (URI) President
- Shana Murrell (RIC) Vice President
- Erin Casey (Bryant) Secretary
- Annette Cerilli (Bryant) Treasurer